

Business Model Canvas

Osterwalder & Pigneur

DEFINITION

A business model is nine linked building blocks on a single shared canvas.

KEY POINTS

- Value proposition sits at the centre
- Right side faces the market: customers, channels, relationships, revenue
- Left side is the engine: activities, resources, partners, costs
- Use to map or redesign how a business creates and captures value

REFERENCE

Osterwalder, A. and Pigneur, Y. (2010) Business Model Generation. Hoboken: Wiley.